“ Most of my stories about Dale I can't tell on a website like this because of who may be reading these. Dale always pointed out to me that I did a wonderful job growing up and taking advantage of my Dad and his relationship. I probably without question should have been suspended more times from school than I already was, but he had so much patience with me as a student. When I graduated from college, he came to my graduation party, handed me a card, said congratulations. He smiled and said to me "Now if there is a God he will give you a student just like me to deal with when I start teaching".

I'll remember him for being such a great listener which was nice coming from someone who never shuts up. Loved his sarcasm, loved my time golfing with him, playing cards, going to Miller park for baseball games and of course being one of the best drinking buddies a guy could ask for.

The one thing I learned in life about him though was never play trivia with him. The man was a savant, such of bank of useless knowledge he never forgot anything. I learned quickly lets just play the games where we don't have to think.

I always point out to Ted life is all about the stories you leave. When my book gets completed there will be many chapters with him in it. I never quite thanked him for that so thanks Dale.

At heart, Dale was always that Iowa farmer who appreciated the simple things in life. Give him a Pabst, an Iowa, Cub or Bear game and lets call it a good day! I'm gong to miss ya.

“ Dale taught me how to diagram a sentence, drive a car, and enjoy the finer points of basketball. I still remember sitting next to him when I was lucky enough to be the manager of the girls' basketball team in 7th grade. I'll always remember his spirited coaching methods (especially when the referee got the call wrong!). We will miss Mr. Teberg so much. Sending lots of hugs to the whole family.

“ Dale and I became close friends in high school at Mt. Pleasant. We ran track together on various relays. Dale was the star track athlete, and truly one of the great preps to ever sprint in Iowa. We never had the opportunity to run on all weather surfaces like we have today. Every meet was run on cinders or once a year on the crushed red brick of Drake. At the State Track Meet Dale's senior year he placed second in the 100 yard dash, and the 220 yard dash behind perhaps the greatest sprinter ever to run in Iowa, Clyde Duncan out of Des Moines North. Nearly any other year Dale would have been the State Champion in both races. Dale was a terrific sprinter and a great friend. I will miss him, but I will always remember his silky smooth running stride.

“ We are in disbelief. Our Hanover Hearts are broken. An amazing teacher, coach and friend, Dale was all that and more to our community of friends.

“ So very sorry for your loss! Dale & I started teaching and coaching together in 1969. From that point forward, we both became friends for life. Together, we bought property and built our first homes. We played golf together, coached basketball together, & generally "hung out" for many years. He touched many lives and will certainly be missed. Blessings to the family!
