“ Memories too. I and my brother helped with hay out at their farm. Blanchard and Doris would pick us up in an old Willy's jeep. Had to climb through the back door. Blanchard baled with a John Deere A. Then Doris would take over and pull the wagon for us to pickup the bales to haul to the barn, Seems like a lifetime ago. Kevin Krug

“ I also remember her hustling up and down the hill from Sullivan agency but also her fitting the girls in their prom dresses. Great seamstress

“ I sure have missed seeing Doris hurrying downtown and back up the hill just as fast! And she was known to walk to their little farm east of town! She was so active and always had a smile on her face.

“ I remember Doris asking me if I remembered going into her upstairs closet and trying out old clothes.....by myself! Didn't remember. Obviously we (Becky and I) had done that before, so I thought it was okay! Ah. Elizabeth. And, I remember Shirley Holland commissioning Doris to bake a rhubarb pie for me. Of course, it was good! And, the library....Sorry for your loss.....

“ Many fond memories of Doris. The top ones involved sledding with her at the farm.
