“ I first met Todd in grade school. We never really got along at first. Then one day walking home from school we met on a corner, Words were said punches were thrown we both walked away with bruises and bloody noses. Who would of thought that would have led to a lifetime friendship. Through school into adulthood we always had each-others back.

Years of hunting, fishing, partying, working at the same jobs, an occasional road tip though the back roads. Raising a little hell from time to time.

Everyone has a few lifetime friends, Todd is my best. Rest in peace my brother you will live on in our memory's

Tetiana, I'm sorry I haven't had the chance to really get to know you. During my conversations with Todd he always spoke very highly of you. I know he loved you very much. He always expressed how special you are. Thank You! for loving and caring for my lifetime friend these last years.

My heart weeps today.

“ Todd's classmates who knew him from grade school and high school are sad to here of his passing. I wish I'd had the mindset to have known Todd better in and outside school. Some of us missed the opportunity to be involved more with Todd who I saw as tough and strong. He could have really helped us sports had we pursued him to join our teams. Missed opportunities with Todd for many of us. We do and will continue to remember him. I'm sure when some of the boys of the class of 1977 meet in Waukon, Iowa, August 10, 11 and 12, memories of Todd will be shared.
